Assistance Dog Etiquette

DO speak to the person first
DO ignore the dog
DO keep in mind that the dog has a very important job to do
DO be aware that assistance dogs are allowed in public places
DO know that the dog loves to work and is well treated
DO remember that the dog is friendly and loveable
DO teach others that the dog is working

Do not talk to, call, or make sounds at the dog
Do not touch the assistance dog without asking permission
Do not let others freely pet the dog
Do not feed the assistance dog
Do not give commands to the dog; this is the owner’s job
Do not ask personal questions about the handlers disability or intrude on his or her privacy
Do not be offended if the handler declines to chat about the assistance dog.

For More Info:

Challenge Maui
250-6711
challengemaui@yahoo.com

This brochure is provided as a public service by Challenge Maui
a non-profit support group which has as its mission to educate our community about disabilities and to facilitate safe access to recreational activities, businesses and services on Maui for people with disabilities

and

Maui Long Term Care Partnership
The Maui Long Term Care Partnership is supported by the Community Partnerships for Older Adults a national program funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to help communities develop leadership, innovative solutions, and options to meet the needs of older adults over the long term.

Source: The content of this brochure was adapted from public service information provided by the United Cerebral Palsy Association, Inc.
Disability Etiquette

RELAX
Relax. Don’t be embarrassed if you happen to use accepted, common expressions such as “See you later”, or “Did you hear that?” that seem to relate to a person’s disability. Don’t be afraid to ask questions when you’re unsure of what to do.

SPEAK DIRECTLY
When talking with a person with a disability, speak directly to that person rather than through a companion or an interpreter.

OFFER TO SHAKE HANDS
When introduced, it is appropriate to offer to shake hands.

IDENTIFY YOURSELF
When meeting a person who is visually impaired, always identify yourself and others who may be with you.

TREAT ADULTS AS ADULTS
Address people who have disabilities by their first names only when extending the same familiarity to all others.

DO NOT LEAN ON A WHEELCHAIR
Leaning or hanging on to a person’s wheelchair is similar to leaning on a person, and is generally considered annoying. The chair is part of their personal space.

LISTEN ATTENTIVELY
Be patient and wait for the person who has difficulty speaking. Wait for the person to finish, rather than correcting or speaking for the person. If necessary, ask short questions that require short answers.

PLACE YOURSELF AT EYE LEVEL
When speaking with a person who uses a wheelchair or a person who uses crutches, place yourself at eye level in front of the person to facilitate the conversation.

GET THE PERSON’S ATTENTION
When speaking to a deaf person, tap the person on the shoulder or wave your hand. Look directly at the person and speak clearly, slowly and expressively to determine if the person can read your lips.

Things To Remember
1. Treat people as you would like to be treated yourself.
2. People with disabilities are NOT alike and have a wide variety of skills and personalities. They are all individuals.
3. Most disabled people are not sick, incompetent, dependent, unintelligent or contagious.