

Alliance for Inclusion Advancement Hawaii Jeopardy Game

What's your AIA-HI IQ?

By

Madeline Harcourt

AIA – HI

Center on Disability Studies

Alliance for Inclusion Advancement- Hawaii

What is the name of our grant?

To increase the capacity of individuals with disabilities to participate in volunteer opportunities and act as a catalyst in enhancing the ability of service organizations to include volunteers with disabilities in their program.

What is the purpose of the AIA-HI Project?

A large group of people interested in increasing the number of volunteers with disabilities in the community who meet at least three times a year.

What is a LINC?

Keep in touch with LINC members, network, acquire new volunteers for your organization or find volunteer placements for potential volunteers with disabilities.

What are some of the benefits of being involved in the AIA-HI Project?

A small meeting consisting of one to four organizations interested in matching volunteers with disabilities with volunteer opportunities in the community.

What is a match-making meeting?

The process of developing and strengthening the skills, instincts, abilities, processes and resources that organizations and communities that need to survive, adapt, and thrive in a fast-changing world.

What is capacity building?

ArtEnabled, Ability House/Habitat for Humanity build, Pacific Rim Conference.

What are some of the AIA-HI sponsored volunteer opportunities and projects?

Veterans or anyone over age 14 with disabilities.

What are the populations targeted by the Alliance for Inclusion Advancement-HI Project?

Tom Cruise, Dick Clark & Patty Duke

Who are celebrities with hidden disabilities?
What are their disabilities?

A flexible work schedule, short breaks to take care of health needs, large font for typing, earphones with music, reports or large email letters for reading email, a diabetic meal at events (avoiding sauces and sugar) or not wearing perfumes or scents.

What are some examples of reasonable accommodations at the work place for little or no cost?

People with disabilities will become an integral part of the community valued for their abilities and have access to community opportunities.

What is community inclusion?

Lifts on buses, recordings letting passengers know what bus stops are approaching, curb cuts, flashing light that rings at the entrance of a public parking garage when a car is approaching and integrated areas for wheelchair users in movie theaters.

What is accessibility or universal design?

A civil rights law enacted to protect people with disabilities in the work place and within institutions of higher learning.

What is the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990?

